A School Day

Reader Notes:

These stories have been designed to help children learn about school so they know what to expect and can learn helpful ways to respond to new situations. As a teacher, parent or carer you can help your child by reading through the stories. You could point out how the child's school experience is different and similar to that in the story and come up with other helpful ways to respond. We hope these stories can make children feel more confident, safe and accepted at school.

When I get to school
I usually wait outside
my classroom for the morning bell to ring.

When the bell goes
I put my bag inside
and sit down and wait
for the teacher.

We might do
different activities
on different days.

When the bell goes for recess we eat our snack then we can go outside and play with our friends.

At lunch time we eat our lunch and
then play outside.

When the bell goes
for home time our
teacher says goodbye.
School has finished!

I take my bag and
leave school.

My family is usually waiting outside to
pick me up and take me home.

AllPlay: Making the world fit for all kids

AllPlay is about creating inclusive environments for children wherever they learn, play, dance and engage in the community.

Our team of researchers brings together the research evidence that sits behind our toolkits and programs to ensure that the strategies we deliver are as effective as they can be.

We work with those committed to creating inclusive communities including coaches, sporting clubs, dance schools, teachers and educators, parents and healthcare practitioners.

Our philosophy:
Change the world, not the child.
